THE REPUBLICAN ADVOCATE

CONDUCTED BY THE COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE

PLATFORM

We hereby re-affirm our allegiance to the time-honored principles of the Republican party. We point with pride to the grand achievements of the present administration under the guidance of that eminent statesman William McKinley, who has guided the ship of state, and who has shown that he has been equal to every emergency in upholding the dignity of our country in diplomatic relations with European powers; and particularly the complications existing in China, studiously avoiding by his wisdom, unpleasant complications with other civilized nations.

We endorse the nomination of William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt, the nominees of the Philadelphia convention of the standard bearers of the National Republican party.

We endorse the nominations of Hon. N. O. Murphy as delegate to congress by the territorial convention at Phoenix, September 24, 1900, recognizing in him one who at this time can accomplish much for the needed wants of the territory, and we also commend the acts and wisdom of said convention.

We endorse the past and present administration of Governor N. O. Murphy.

We are unalterably in favor of statehood and request our delegate to congress to use all honorable means to acquire the same.

We are in favor of an honest and economic administration of the affairs of our county government with a view that the burdens of onerous taxation may be lifted from our already overtaxed citizens of the county.

We exact from the officers in whose hands are entrusted, as public officials, the affairs of the county, honesty and integrity in the discharge of official duties in their respective offices.

We are in favor of government aid for the irrigation of the arid lands of our territory, and we ask that our councilman and representatives use their best endeavors in the territorial council and legislature to bring about that much desired result.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

The republican ticket, as presented to the voters of Cochise county, contains the names of some of our most prominent citizens, men who have been identified with advancing her welfare since she was cut off from Pima, men who have every dollar of their wealth invested within her borders, men when given charge of the management of the affairs of Cochise county will give to her one of the cleanest administrations she has ever had. They are all well known business men, and most of them need no introduction to the citizens of the county.

THE COUNCILMAN.

In the Hon. C. C. Warner the party places before the voters a man who has lived in the county for nearly twenty years, and who for the past seven years has served the Copper Queen company in a responsible position. Two years ago he was elected to the office for which he again aspires, and his record in the legislative halls is one of which he may well be proud, as may the voters who sent him there. The welfare of Cochise will not find a more faithful guardian in the council than will be C. C. Warner.

THE ASSEMBLY.

It is very important that the next legislature should be republican for more than one reason. It should be in harmony with the national and territorial administrations, which are bound to be Republican. There will be important work to do at the next session of the legislature, and none but representative men should be sent there, and with this end in view the party presents an especially strong ticket.

H. M. Woods, of Bisbee, has already creditably served one term in that body, being elected by a handsome majority two years ago, and no county in the territory had a man more true to her interests than he was to Cochise. He is one of the most popular citizens of our city, and is well known all over the county, where he has a most excellent reputation.

F. R. O'Brien, of Turquoise, is not very well known in this section of the county, but has lived for years in the northern end, and has hosts of friends there who speak most favorably of him. He is at present in the mercantile business at Turquoise, and is noted for his honesty and business ability. He is a man who has made his mark in the mercantile business, and in him Cochise county need have no fear but that her future in the legislative halls will be well looked after.

A. H. Norcross, of St. David, who completes the legislative ticket, has been a resident of Cochise county for nearly fifteen years, being employed as engineer on the N. M. & A. railroad for most of that time. He has considerable property in the county, and has been a taxpayer for years. He is a man in whom can be placed the utmost confidence, and who is noted for his integrity and forethought. It may be depended upon that no hasty measure will be acted upon by him until he has fully investigated the matter, and no harm will come to our county while he is in the legislative halls.

These men are good citizens, and they will make efficient, reliable representatives of Cochise county's interests and every one of them should be elected by a good majority.

THE SHERIFF.

This office is one of the most important in the county and is in need of a man who will not fear or flinch, will rid Cochise county of the band of outlaws and desperadoes who are now located within Cochise border. For this position no one more fitted could be found than Dayton Graham. For the past six years he has served the people of Bisbee as constable and deputy Sheriff, and has had many desperate criminals to deal with. He has a reputation for being one of the most courageous and fearless peace officers in Arizona, and the citizens of the county may rest assured that in him they will have an officer who will do his duty and will always be on hand when his services are required. He is not a man to stay behind and direct others, but when a posse is in the field will be found with them and as their leader.

TREASURER

In C. L. Cummings, of Tombstone, the party has selected a man for the office of Treasurer, who has been a substantial business man in this county for years, who has made a small fortune by his diligence and thrift and now has considerable money invested in different enterprises throughout the county. He has served the county in several important positions and has always been true to his post. The two years he represented the county in the lower house of the legislature and for a year served in the capacity of under sheriff. He is most thoroughly competent for the office for which he is a candidate, and when installed in the office will prove that the trust of the county funds has not been misplaced.

RECORDER

H. C. Stillman, of Bisbee, who is the party's choice for the office of our county recorder, has been a resident of Cochise county for twenty years, having come to Bisbee when the camp first opened. His son has the honor of being the first child born in Bisbee. His fitness for the office is not questioned and is admitted by all. Mr. Stillman has been engaged in numerous kinds of business since he came to the country, for a number of years he was employed in the Copper Queen mine as a miner, and in the early history of the camp acted as a merchant and Wells Fargo's Express agent. For the past year he has been keeping the books for Overlock Bros., and from their appearance the people of the county need have no

PLATFORM

The Democratic party of Cochise county, in convention assembled, endorse without qualification the platform and candidates of the Kansas City convention, and sadly regrets that republican domination at the national capital, by withholding statehood from Arizona, prevents us from recording our votes for the same.

We denounce the Republican doctrine that territories have no rights under the constitution, but can enjoy only such liberties as congress may deem "consistent with their welfare" to bestow.

We endorse the Hon. Marcus A. Smith as the regular Democratic nominee for delegate to congress, and invite all voters who have at heart the best interests of Arizona to assist us in re-electing the leading statesman of our commonwealth to the office to which he has been fairly nominated and which he has so creditably filled.

We promise to do all in our power to defeat the Republican scheme to capture the territorial legislature and will endeavor to send a solid Democratic delegation from this county pledged to repeal the law which compels a voter to pay his poll tax before registration. Cochise now being a first class county, we believe it should be officered by first-class men, and we therefore present for the endorsement of the people a ticket selected with extreme care. Every man named is pre-eminently qualified to perform the duties of the particular office to which he has been nominated.

We favor the election of men to the office of supervisor who have property interests within the county, and who have shown ability in conducting private business affairs, thereby proving their fitness to conduct the affairs of the county.

We favor an equitable and just assessment of the taxable property with the county, and believe that more care in this direction would place the burdens of taxation where they most justly belong.

We renew the standing pledge of the democratic party to strict economy in the various branches of government and congratulate our citizens on the near approach of the day when the old indebtedness of the county shall be paid off and the rate of taxation can be reduced at least one half.

The Democratic Central Committee of Cochise county have arranged with the Bisbee News Company to have control of three columns of the daily COCHISE REVIEW during the remainder of the present political campaign. As this newspaper has the largest circulation of any among the voters of Cochise county, we hope by this means to reach a large majority of our citizens, and by fair, truthful discussion of candidates and issues show the people just and logical reasons why the candidates placed in nomination by the Democratic party should be given the responsibilities of government for the next term of office.

In national politics, concerning which the Republican party has so far prevented our having any direct voice, the issues have never been so diverse, so real and so vastly important since the civil war as they are at the present time. The Republican party, under its new leadership, champions theories of government that the men in control of that party only a decade ago flatly repudiate. Ex-President Harrison has firmly refused to make speeches or in any manner countenance the policy of the present administration. Ex-Speaker Reed, Senator Hoar of Massachusetts, Senator Wellington of Maryland, Senator Mason of Illinois, ex-Governor Boutwell of Massachusetts, ex-Secretary Schurz, and a host of other leaders in the better days of the Republican party, are either eloquently silent or in active hostility towards the policy of their party under the management of Hanna and McKinley. General Grant's son is ably advocating the principles of which William J. Bryan is the champion. Blaine, before his death, had already begun to part company with the new leaders of his party, and no one is so frequently quoted as condemning all that recent republicanism stands for as the immortal Lincoln.

Republicans this year face the problem whether to change their political creed or change their party affiliations. Some choose one and some choose the other. A special effort was made by the Republican national central committee to have as many men as possible delegates to the Philadelphia convention who had helped to nominate Lincoln for the presidency, and yet nearly as many of those early reformers were members of the conventions that nominated Bryan this year.

It is urged by many, with some reason, that these questions are not affected by the choosing of county officers; that a sheriff of Cochise county cannot help to bring about the free coinage of silver; that the question of imperialism cannot be settled by our probate judge. On the other hand, the national republican managers would willingly expend many dollars to be able to point to Arizona as a silver producing commonwealth that had endorsed Republican ideas; that this great territory had gone back on the Democratic party that it has so long supported.

There is a closely connected chain, in our system of government, from the justice court to the White House. Let the voters of this county show at the polls in November that they trust no man with even the smallest share in the government of even the smallest part of our country who has not the intelligence and patriotism to be in perfect political accord with our great national leader and reformer, William Jennings Bryan.

Our Candidate for Sheriff.

Were a political campaign not in progress but instead one of those contests sometimes gotten up at church fairs when people vote for the "most popular man," Adelbert V. Lewis would be a popular winner. Mr. Lewis, familiarly known as "Dell," has justly gained his popularity. During his long residence in this county, he has never been known to do a mean act, but in every relation of life has borne himself in a manly honest straightforward fashion. Nature made him for a sheriff. Physically, he is one of the most splendid specimens of manhood one would meet in a long journey. His bravery has never been questioned, and his years of service as constable and deputy sheriff have given ample opportunity for testing his courage as well as the other qualities requisite to a model peace officer, and in every instance the test has resulted in additional proof of his fitness for such responsibilities. He has never been tyrannical, and while he is a terror to evil doers, the innocent person who may have the misfortune to be wrongfully accused of misdeeds is sure of receiving kind treatment at his hands. He is perfectly familiar with every nook and corner of this great county. He has a good business education. He has promised deputyships to nobody, but can be trusted to delegate his authority to only men worthy of such trust. Mr. Lewis was born in Ogden, Utah, forty years ago, and has been in Arizona sixteen years. Several years ago he married Miss Edwards, a member of one of the pioneer families of this section. Three children have been born to them but the oldest died when not quite two years old. Dell has three times been elected constable in Bisbee and each time by larger majorities than any of his opponents. The same result can confidently be predicted this fall, and the taxpayers can be sure that the sheriff's office, with Dell Lewis in control, will be conducted in a manner that will be a credit to our county.

Our Candidate for Treasurer.

The people of the county selected Mr. M. D. Scribner for their treasurer months ago. The Democratic convention, representing the party of the people, showed no inclination to disregard this decision, but promptly placed the name on their ticket by acclamation and proceeded to other business. Some of the delegates to the Republican convention had heard the voice and favored an endorsement of Mr. Scribner's candidacy. But wise counsel rarely prevails in Republican conventions and this was no exception. The people of Cochise are indeed fortunate in having a fellowcitizen of such undisputed qualifications who is willing to undertake the duties of this important office. Mr. Scribner is 44 years old and was born in Louisiana. He has lived in Cochise county sixteen years, during which time he has held an important position of trust with the Wells-Fargo Express company. He held the office of treasurer of this county in '93 and '94. He inaugurated the present excellent system of conducting the affairs of that office which has been followed without change by both his successors. In business circles no man is more highly respected or more confidently trusted than Mr. Scribner. All the old timers know Scribner and like him. He could easily secure ten times as large a bond as is exacted by law. While he is the friend of the humblest he is the peer of the most exalted. His majority should be worthy of the character of the man.

TAGALOS TAUGHT A LESSON.

Philippine Insurgents Attack Americans Badly Whipped.

The Tagalos were from the island of Luzon.
